CITY COLLEGE OF TAGAYTAY DRUG POLICY

The City Government of Tagaytay, through the CCT Board of Trustees, establishes the rule and policy that City College of Tagaytay (CCT) students should not make use of prohibited or dangerous drugs in any circumstances, regardless of time or place. To this end:

1. The School's objective is to maintain a drug-free community. It shall spare no effort to bar the use of prohibited, regulated, or dangerous drugs, or the presence of any person under such influence on the CCT campus, its surrounding environments, and during school-sponsored or school-related activities, functions, and events.
2. at any time, whether or not during the school year, that a student:
 - a. is on CCT campus or its surrounding environments
 - b. is present at a school-sponsored or school-related activity, function, or eventthe student is subject to the School's policies and rules concerning drugs, regardless of where the drug use occurred.
3. The school likewise prohibits the actual, frustrated, or attempted possession, sale, or transfer of prohibited or dangerous drugs or drug-related paraphernalia by any person at any time of the year on CCT's campus, or its surrounding environments, during a school-sponsored or school-related activity, function or event.

Dangerous drugs include, but are not limited to, narcotics, stimulants, barbiturates, suppressants, hallucinogens, marijuana, or amphetamines. The school likewise considers the following as prohibited or dangerous drugs;

- Any pharmaceutical without a valid prescription and knowledge and permission of parents;
- Any abusive glue, aerosol, or any other chemical substance used by a students for inhalation ; and
- Any intoxicating, or mood-changing, mind-changing, mind-altering substance or drugs.

It is understood that the term: school-sponsored or school-related activity, or events includes time spent riding a school bus or any other means of transport to a school-sponsored or school-related activity, function, or event.

Use, whether active or passive, pertains to a student voluntarily introducing or tolerating, or allowing to be introduced, by any means; into his or her body, a prohibited or dangerous substance such that it is detectable by the student's physical appearance, action, breath, speech, or chemical analysis.

Possession. Is any conduct or combination of acts of a student evincing custody or control of or over a prohibited dangerous substance.

Sale and Transfer refer to any conveyance from a student to any other person, natural or juridical, of a prohibited or dangerous substance for any consideration, whether valuable, pecuniary, gratuitous, or even out of mere liberality.

As part of the policy, a screening and detection procedure utilizing urinalysis, hair follicle, saliva or other such drug detection tests as determined by the administration, will be conducted on a random basis, or, when suspicion of use exists, selectively.

Randomly selection may result in a student being selected for testing or screening more than once during the semester.

Infractions of the CCT policy on drug abuse are cumulative throughout the student's tenure at CCT, and will result in the following consequences:

1. Any students who possesses, uses, buys, sells, gives, or traffic drugs on or off the school campus, its surrounding environments, or at any school-sponsored or school-related activity, function, or
