These policies do not supersede action of the Board as recorded in the minutes of the Board meetings. Furthermore, these policies are subject to amendment by the Board of Trustees of the College.

WHEREAS, the College Code does not represent a contract between the college and any employee, student, or other person, instead the College Code constitutes a good-faith effort to outline normal policies, including rules, regulations, procedures, and customary practices currently in force at the City College of Tagaytay.

WHEREAS, Rule number 1 - General Provisions as contained in the College Code page 11 to 13, includes the following sections:
